

FLORES TO CELEBRATE 70TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flores of San Ramon with their son, Phil (left) and daughter, Marge, center, will be honored Sunday in celebration of their 70th wedding anniversary.

Wedding bells in 1905 Married for 70 years

California was barely 55 years young, Teddy Roosevelt was at the height of an exciting presidency, and movies were in their infancy when Fred O. Flores claimed Esther Sawyer as his bride on June 29, 1905.

Their seventy years of marriage will be the occasion of a gala celebration this Sunday when 150 relatives and friends gather at the Sunny Glenn Community Center of the San Ramon adult community in which they live.

They were married in Merced, Calif., in the bride's home when she was 18 and he 23. Now they both belie their mature ages of 88 and 93 respectively.

She is a diminutive, alert, cheerful person who warmly greets you with a kiss. Her bright brown eyes dance when she speaks of her children and her life that "God has so blessed."

Mr. Flores meets you with a strong handshake and you are impressed with his well-built muscular body, a tribute to a life of obvious strenuous physical activity.

Their comfortable home radiates an atmosphere of hospitality. As you enter through their porch lanai, their love of gardening is evidenced by the abundance of plants visible everywhere.

They maintain their own apartment. "He does most of the cooking now," laughs Mrs. Flores. Their devoted son and daughter, Philip Flores and Marge Hamilton, also residents of Sunny Glenn, live close by.

Mr. Flores was living in San Francisco with his family when they met. After their marriage in Merced, Fred Flores brought his bride back to the city by the bay to start their long and fruitful life.

Neither of them dreamed that in just one year it would suddenly take a drastic change. They were in San Francisco awaiting the birth of their first child when the great earthquake of 1906 destroyed that city.

They lost all their worldly possessions at that time but Mr. Flores managed to make it to the waterfront with his young and frightened expectant wife. He paid someone $10 to row them across the bay to Berkeley. From there they called her parents who came from Merced to get them.

So, it was in Merced that their first son, Oscar, was born, just 9 days after the earthquake. He lived to be 57 years old before he passed away.

The family soon journeyed back to the Bay Area to settle in Berkeley. Mr. Flores worked for 30 years as an engineer for the Colgate-Palmolive Co. in Berkeley before retiring.

It was here that the rest of their five children were born and raised. Three of the children are still living; Phil and Marge already mentioned, and Felix Flores, now living in San Miguel, Mexico. Another daughter, Amanda Sainsot, is also deceased.

They have 11 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Most of them will be there to help celebrate this momentous anniversary. Also to be present will be Mrs. Flores' sister, Mrs. Anita Bustillos, who was maid of honor 70 years ago. Mrs. Bustillos is also a resident of Sunny Glenn.

They all came to live in Sunny Glenn, San Ramon, through the influence of their son, Phil Flores, former owner of Valley Liquors in Dublin, and otherwise known as the "Mayor of Sunny Glenn." Champion lawn-bowler, former president of the Homeowner's Association, he is always looking out for the best interests of his adult community. He will be among the privileged members of the Flores family for this Sunday's happy event at Sunny Glenn in San Ramon.

Teachers win 4.5 per cent

Amador board OK's pay plan

PLEASANTON - Amador Valley Joint High School district trustees, with a bare quorum present, approved a certificated salary schedule reflecting an across the board 4.5 per cent increase.

Dr. Bruce Newlin, district superintendent, said any new unrestricted funds less increased costs resulting from increased average daily attendance and other categories will be available for salary schedule increases and program improvements.

The unrestricted funds will come from (1) increased ADA beyond $4,953 budgeted, (2) new legislation, including Tier II financing of Public Law 874, and (3) a 1974-75 ending balance in excess of $386,000 (high school).

The adopted action brought an immediate affirmative but cautious response from Jim Carroll, newly elected president of the Amador Valley Secondary Educators Association.

"It (salary and benefit negotiations) was a very worthwhile procedure this year. We (VEC) didn't agree with everything but at least we could philosophically discuss everything. Having experienced previous salary negotiations, I believe these went 100 per cent," Carroll stated.

The Dublin High social studies teacher said that high school teachers had voted to go to a contingency percentage increase of 12.1 per cent, including cost of living.

The schedule approved Tuesday night calls for a 4.5 per cent salary schedule raise.

Newlin said all new nonrestricive funds, minus costs, will be available for salary schedule increases in excess of 1 per cent and in excess of each 1 per cent thereafter until a total of 6.5 per cent schedule increase is realized.

If the increased funds provide for more than the 6.5 per cent schedule hike, the monies would then be apportioned as follows: 50 per cent for salary schedule increases to a maximum of an 8.5 schedule and 50 per cent for program restoration and improvements.

Additional monies beyond that would be given to program restoration or improvements.

Newlin reminded that a funding review will be held just prior to adoption of the 1975-76 budget a month from now and again about February 1, 1976.

The schedule grants teachers up to and including six years for past teacher experience.

Beginning salary for those with just an AB is $9,413.

For the more experienced teacher, one with for example 30 units beyond an AB, the salary range would be $10,632 to $15,784.

Salary range for the most experienced (AB plus 75 units) is $14,287 to $19,161.

Amador trustees also adopted a 1975-76 schedule calling for 176 school days and five teacher work days.

Classes will begin at 8 a.m. and recess at 2:10 p.m. High school classes resume Thursday, Sept. 4.

Following the Amador board meeting, a joint valley board session discussed the graduation task force work of the Amador district and curriculum objectives in the Murray elementary district.

Architectural goof blows Cultural Center funds

PLEASANTON - An architectural oversight in plans for the $100,000 Cultural Arts Center has all but depleted the funds set aside to purchase equipment for that center.

The city council approved a $4,400 expenditure to correct that oversight Monday night and that money will come from the $5,300 that had been budgeted to equip the center.

The plans for the center had not included an overhang roof in the patio area that will cover the kiln.

Recreation Department personnel hope that donations, including the nearly $1,600 that has been raised by the Pleasanton Art League, will help make up the difference. The Jaycees have apparently offered to construct the kiln, which would result in a sizeable savings.

The Cultural Arts Center is estimated to be completed by mid-October.

The council also authorized the staff to advertise for bids on the $41,000 Santa Rita Road widening project.

The project will include a widening of Santa Rita Road to four lanes from Black Avenue to Amador High School. Bids are expected to be opened at the council's July 14 meeting.

Concurrent with the widening project, the city will install a new water line on Santa Rita at an additional cost of $14,000.

In other action Monday night, the council reviewed the $4 million five-year construction program at the Alameda County Fairgrounds, approved the Devor-Busch and the Auf der Maur annexations, and certified the final Environmental Impact Report for the sewer project.

Freak shower causes blackout

Monday night's freak summer shower played havoc with Valley power lines, according to Pacific Gas and Electric spokesmen, disrupting service in both Dublin and Livermore.

"Arcing" on overhead lines short-circuited transformers in Dublin-San Ramon at 2:10 a.m., cutting off power to 2,683 patrons.

Power was restored to 90 percent on their subscribers by 8 a.m., and the remainder by 8:40, according to the spokesman.

Dust accumulating on the lines during the dry spell was turned to mud — a conductor of electricity — by the mid-night shower, shorting out power.

Spokesmen say the lines were washed down regularly with special equipment, but sudden shower caught them off guard.

Power to 112 customers in Livermore was lost at 4:48 a.m., but returned by noon.

Arcing along lines on Tesler, Morgan and South Vasco Roads caused the outage.

Meanwhile, 114 customers in an area northeast of Livermore were without power for 19 hours when severe arcing knocked down lines on May, Laughlin and the May School Roads.

Power failed at 5:42 a.m. and was not restored until 3:43 p.m. because no back-up lines were available, according to the spokesman.

Mori casts one of key votes

Solons OK marijuana bill

SACRAMENTO - The California Assembly passed the controversial marijuana bill Tuesday after nearly six hours of discussion.

Assemblyman Floyd Mori reversed his earlier opposition to the bill, which will decriminalize the use of marijuana, and was one of the key votes in the passage.

The measure was approved by the Assembly by a 42-34 vote, one vote more than the 41 needed for passage.

The bill, which received State Senate approval in March, will now be returned to the Senate for a vote on amendments added by the lower house.

Before the vote, supporters narrowly defeated Republican attempts to make several of the bill's provisions more stringent.

The legislation, if approved by the Senate and signed by the governor, would repeal current authority to prosecute marijuana possession as either a felony or misdemeanor. Felony penalties against sales of marijuana would be unchanged.

A person convicted of possessing an ounce or less of marijuana would face a misdemeanor with a fine of up to $100. For possession of more than one ounce, a person would face maximum penalty of $500 and up to six months in jail.

Planners give green light to PG&E line

PLEASANTON - The planning commission approved a proposed PG&E (Pacific Gas and Electric Company) 230 kilovolt transmission line route Tuesday—but only in general terms.

PG&E plans to locate a new sub station on Stanley Boulevard and to run the high voltage line south and east to the hill area adjacent to the city.

The commission admitted both it and PG&E have been put in the awkward position of having to approve the route "before all the facts are in."

That situation arose because the public utilities commission requires comment from "affected jurisdictions" to include in the environmental impact report which they will prepare on the transmission line route.

Planning Director Bob Harris urged the commission to make its recommendation "in as general terms as possible so that you are not tying this planning commission and future commissions to a decision which may not be acceptable to the city once all of the facts are presented."

Referring to the PUC requirement, Commissioner Bud Garrigan likened it to "putting the cart before the horse. It is unfair to put PG&E and us in this position." He added, however, "we know we need a sub station and it should be on that end of town."

The commission authorized staff to send a letter to the PUC which indicates general endorsement of the proposed route.

AC Transit can pick up passengers

LIVERMORE - AC Transit's special BART feeder bus through the city and out to the Lawrence Livermore and Sandia Laboratories will be allowed to pick up passengers along its route starting this morning.

The bus travels along Murrieta and Stanley boulevards, Fourth Street and East Avenue during the morning and evening commute hours.

For more information, call 462-BART.

Weather Fair in the valley through Thursday except occasional cloudiness tonight and Thursday. Slightly warmer days. Lows tonight in the upper 40s to low 50s. Highs both days in the 70s. Northwest winds 10 to 25 mph afternoons and evenings.

City sets wage talks today

PLEASANTON - The city council has called an executive session for 5 p.m. today in the wake of yesterday's vote by the Pleasanton City Employees Association to reject their wage offer.

The PCEA met at 12 noon Tuesday and voted unanimously to reject the city's offer of an 8 per cent salary increase this year and a hike next year that would amount to 50 percent of the cost of living increase.

More than 70 of the PCEA's 100 plus members attended the Tuesday meeting.

The PCEA contends there is enough money in the budget to provide a 12 percent wage hike, which would match the cost of living increase.

The PCEA contract expires on Monday.

Negotiator Keith Fleming, who is handling both the PCEA talks and negotiations with the Pleasanton Firefighters, said he was not free to comment on the PCEA action.

The firefighters contract runs out on July 31.

Expanded entry way readied

The main entry way onto the County Fairgrounds, off of Pleasanton Avenue, has been widened and renovated with new gates and security booth installed. There'll also be better ingress and egress into parking lots off of Rose Avenue and Bernal for the thousands expected each day starting Sunday. Annual Fair parade at 12 noon Sunday along Main and Rose in Pleasanton begins Fair's two-week run.

(Times Photo)

PLEASANTON - Because of a conflict in schedules, Helen Tirsell, chairwoman of the Congress of Valley Agencies, did not address the Pleasanton City Council Monday night but will do so next Monday.

Tirsell was scheduled to speak to the council concerning its refusal to present plans for the regional shopping center to COVA for review.

Tirsell, however, is also a member of the Livermore City Council and that body had scheduled planning commission interviews at the same time as her planned Pleasanton council appearance.

According to Tirsell, she will appear at the council's next meeting on Monday.

Variety of architectural lines betray Broughton Castle's hodge-podge heritage. Built in the 1200's, it was enlarged several times and reached its present form during Elizabethan times. (Times photo by Kevin Kennedy)

A visit to a medieval manor house...

ENGLAND - The tour guide, a dark-haired woman in a dowdy cotton skirt and hideously sensible shoes, was certainly sharp at distinguishing the Norman nooks from the Elizabethan crannies.

She knew her English history, too, especially as it concerned the Fiennes and the Say & Seles, the noble families no American has heard of who have occupied the rambling Broughton Castle since it was a medieval manor house.

The guide went into inordinate detail about the Say & Seles heroes, showing off their bloodstained uniforms and ancient swords and royal honors. She even possessively referred to the restoration work in progress as improvements "we" have made in the past few years.

The American visitors thought all that possessive pride was a little out of line, even given the fact that the locals often take a keen interest in the nobility.

Then the tourists saw the collection of family pictures in a lived-in upstairs bedroom of the castle. There was no mistaking the long jaw and dark hair of our tour guide in that group of portraits. Lady Say & Sele herself!

It's happening all over England — noble families opening their ancestral homes to the public. For a dollar or two (measured in pounds and new pence now), you get the chance to look at an amazing hodgepodge of medieval armor and Elizabethan furniture and 18th-century French tableware. Gainsborough paintings hanging on walls covered with hand-painted Chinese silk 200 years old. Patterned formal gardens being steadily encroached by untended rose bushes and wild daisies.

Little by little, the families are able to use restoration money to shore up a sagging flagstone floor, buy back a piece of furniture, patch a mossy slate roof.

The carriage house becomes a moneymaking tea-house, complete with wrought iron tables and packaged cakes. Red buses park in front of the abandoned stables and disgorge dozens of circumspect sightseers, mostly British.

The noble family retreat with personal belongings into a corner of the building, install some modern electricity and plumbing, and settle down to an existence not so different from the rest of their countrymen. (And high time, too, think the democracy-minded Americans.)

Visiting old mansions and castles is just one of the low-cost pursuits that can give a vacation in the British Isles a lot of charm.

Another way to enjoy the countryside is to seek out some of the odd things you read about in high-school English Literature class. Take a tour of the Yorkshire dales. Find a scarlet pimpernel. Pick heather on a moor. Admire Scottish broom, that indestructible Valley plant with the yellow flowers, in its native habitat. Discover what Charles Dickens meant when he talked about sitting INSIDE the fireplace.

A visit to the British Isles includes northern Scotland where the midsummer sun almost forgets to dip below the horizon. Wales with its own language and dramatic scenery. Ireland, where you can cross the border between the warring north and south for a risky thrill... and England, where every 50 miles brings you distinctly different climate, scenery and local accent.

Once you get used to the idea that gas costs $1.50 a gallon, a vacation in Britain doesn't seem so expensive despite their well-publicized inflation.

The British pound sterling is in no better shape than the American dollar, making for a favorable rate of exchange. And with the British themselves falling on even harder times than they're used to, they have held down prices on certain necessities of life. Like a mug of thick, foamy beer (50 cents), a lunch of French bread, cheese and pickled onions (75 cents), bed and breakfast in an ancient inn ($5) and admission to a village soccer game (free.)

The great thing about traveling in Britain is that the native language is the same as yours — although you may not think so at first. It means you can have your needs accurately understood, and also your thanks.

It also means you can read the bright brochures put out by the national railways and bus companies which tell about delightful tours to every corner of the country.

Ten dollars a day gets you a flight to the Isle of Man, bed and breakfast at a seaside hotel. Twenty-five a week rents a tent big enough for four.

Of course there's the weather, usually sunny and mild from Easter on but sometimes downright clammy.

But those gloomy days are the time to visit some crumbling castle, and maybe meet some incognito Lady of the Manor yourself. — by Pat Kennedy

Fair's nostalgic appeal glories in home arts

One of the basic appeals of the upcoming county fair, particularly in these troubled times, is its honest and unashamed offering of nostalgia. To both exhibitors and audience alike, the fair provides a visit back in time to the serenity of "Main Street U.S.A." when life was uncomplicated, pleasures were simple, and the home was the hub around which everything revolved.

Nowhere in the county fair is this more evident than in the home arts section, where exhibitors of both sexes and all ages take delight in demonstrating domestic skills which for most people are things of the past.

This year, the eve of the Bicentennial, the Alameda County Fair anticipates a larger-than-ever home arts section. According to Department Head Dorothy Ross, it will take 22 judges to select the best entries in the various sections of this comprehensive display.

Mrs. Ross explains that the fullest encouragement is being given for self-created items, with the greatest emphasis placed on original efforts rather than packaged "kits".

As an example of the diversification of the home arts section, Mrs. Ross enumerates some of the divisions: baked foods, confections, textiles, rugs, pictures, clothing, knitwear, preserved foods, canned foods, etc.

New classifications are hand-spun articles, dough art, stained glass, purses, and original design rugs, crewel and needlepoint.

To be judged this week are preserved foods, clothing and textiles, antiques, arts and crafts. Baked goods will be judged Saturdays June 28 and July 5.

The Alameda County Fair open its 1975 season June 29 through July 13.

Marilyn Murphy, art department head, and Dorothy Ross of the home arts department display just a few of the articles to be featured at the county fair.

Group sharing for women demonstrated by NOW

Live demonstrations of interaction in women's consciousness-raising groups will be presented Sunday and Monday, June 29 and 30 by the (Tri-Valley Chapter of NOW (National Organization for Women).

An evening demonstration is scheduled Sunday from 7:30 to 9:30 at Homestead Savings and Loan Association in Dublin. The daytime group will meet at the Pleasanton Library from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Monday.

Consciousness-raising is a group process of sharing and learning. Women can share their experiences of being female in a sexist society, and learn to trust themselves and each other in an atmosphere of support and acceptance.

The group's organizers emphasize that there is no confrontation, but every woman's experience is considered valid and important. The demonstrations are open to Valley women of all ages and backgrounds. The events may be seen as an opportunity to learn about the women's movement.

Ongoing consciousness-raising groups to meet for periods of eight to ten weeks will be organized from among interested viewers.

However, there will be no obligation to join a group. For further information contact Judy Matheson at 829-4642.

HOW MIRACLE WHITE SUPER CLEANER CAN HELP YOUR DETERGENT

In case you hadn't noticed, your old detergent ain't what it used to be. It's lower in phosphates now. It needs the power Miracle White Super Cleaner can add. Independent tests showed Super Cleaner, with the leading detergent, removed soil and stains up to 30% better than detergent alone. To prevent graying, yellowing, and get rid of all kinds of stains, especially in today's fabrics (like permanent press), today your detergent needs Miracle White Super Cleaner.

The grand design for bankruptcy

For that is the battle we are fighting. To survive as a city, or a valley urban group. We are threatened by many forces ... air pollution that pours in from outside urban and industrial centers, or from freeways that go from there to there ... water standards that place a higher standard on the effluent we discharge downstream, than on the stuff we draw from our own faucets ... property taxes that are imposed on us by county and state welfare programs over

Financial ruin

What a lot of us in town, who live on a lot less than our Rad Lab godfathers, would like to know, is this: We have a city manager who has worked hard for almost 20 years. In fact, he is ready for retirement. He certainly does not make $2500 a month! Yet the Rad Lab punch has allowed our reserve fund to drop from its 20% reserve to 7%! That is a drop of 3% below what is considered normal.

"How would you and Skeeter like to take a little cruise on the bay Saturday night?" he inquired. "About thirty of us are going out for cocktails, dinner and about a four hour cruise."

Does any of this make sense? Not if you are being asked to bet millions on the future of this valley's commerce. And not if you are the local home owner, struggling to hang on, looking for a little help, and hoping for some common sense leadership out of the pollution of ideas which lately seem to engulf us.

Also a great way to start a conversation among a bunch of strangers. "Oh, YOU'RE the people who have such a terrible time with tea!" Yes, and with just about all of life's other pleasures, it seems. But we keep trying.

I remembered all this when a new arrival, a few years back, suggested that "this valley has been trying for decades to keep out the minorities." True, but which ones? As a Canadian transplant, who spent the first five years just trying to convince the localites that they could trust anyone who drank tea, and wore a bow tie, I am testify to the struggle we minorities always faced.

For Wednesday, June 25, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Usually you're an independent thinker, not easily swayed. Today you'll be pressured by a pal and follow some bad advice.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be patient when working with people who don't grasp ideas as quickly as you do. It's no great chore to repeat the information.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't borrow something that could get broken because you don't know how to use it. You're all thumbs with tools today.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you're indecisive about buying an article for the home today, walk away from it. The need is not that immediate.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your work habits are still not up to par. You may again try to get by with a lick-and-a-promise today.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your easy come, easy go frame of mind may cause you to let a profitable opportunity slip through your fingers.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You'll let a person who could have helped you off the hook today because you're not a good closer.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You tend to blurt things out today. You'll tell something better kept confidential to the wrong party.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Steer clear of sales today that offer unique merchandise, or you'll wind up buying gadgets you'll never use.

On the opposite end of the bidding spectrum from the sign-off is the game force. When a player makes a game-forcing bid, the partnership is committed to keep bidding until game is reached.

North's two-spade response to the opening heart bid was a game force. South's three-heart reply merely revealed that he held a rebiddable heart suit. It said nothing about how good his hand was.

In the language of bids of that particular partnership, North's jump to four spades conveyed the message that his game-forcing bid was based largely

KEEP THE DATES of July 12 and 13 open, because there's going to be a whopping big two-day Series 75 P.I.T.A. shoot out at the Livermore Pleasanton Rod and Gun Club.

EVERY TUESDAY evening from 6 to 10 p.m. there will be trap-shooting at the Livermore-Pleasanton Rod and Gun Club. Jack-pot shoots, too! Sound interesting? Show up out there and you'll find out.

LARRY COLLINGS was spreading the word as he stopped by Sandoval's Sporting Goods and Bait Shop. Larry and his fishing buddy, Mark Avery, report they had excellent luck out at The Gates, Clifton Court Fore Bay.

Each of them had a limit of catfish, and there were three over 18 inches long. Larry says early morning or at sundown is the best time, on the inlet side of the Fore Bay.

DON'T FORGET TO renew your current hunting license. There are a few changes this year, as follows:

The resident hunting license this year costs $10, up from $6 last year, although other hunting fees remain the same except for the $2 pheasant stamp which has been eliminated. The resident deer tag is $3, the bear tag $1 and the trapping license $1.

The junior hunting license (for hunters under 16 years) is $2, the non-resident hunting license $35 and the non-resident deer tag $25. The California duck stamp is $1.

An applicant for a hunting license must provide either: (1) proof that he has held a California license for a previous year, or (2) a hunter safety certificate of competence from California or another state or Canadian province.

SURE GLAD THAT hunting is getting close. Here is a run-down on the upcoming antelope hunting.

Application cards and information sheets for the 12th annual special hunt for buck antelope in Modoc, Lassen, Shasta and Siskiyou counties will be available by Saturday, June 28, from all authorized hunting license agents, and from the Department of Fish and Game offices beginning Monday, June 30.

Applications must be filed on the application card and must reach the DFG license office in Sacramento by 5 p.m., July 15, to be included in the July 17 drawing, so interested hunters are advised to pick up their applications and get them filled in and mailed as soon as they are available. The drawing will be held at 9 a.m. July 17 at DFG headquarters, Resources Building, 1416 Ninth Street, Sacramento 95814.

The California Fish and Game Commission will make its final determinations concerning the hunt at its June 17 meeting in Bishop. If approved as proposed, 225 permits will be issued for the hunt, which will open Aug 23 and close Sept. 1.

The hunt area will be divided into seven zones with permits allotted as follows: Clear Lake 50; Alturas 90; East Warners 5; East Lassen 40; West Lassen 5; Big Valley 15; and Mount Dome 20.

Applicants must be over 16, citizens and residents of the state, and hold a valid 1975-76 resident hunting license. Two persons may apply as a party by submitting their applications in one envelope, but not more than two persons may apply as a party. Applicants should indicate a first and a second choice of the zones they wish to hunt.

No money should be submitted with applications. Successful applicants will be notified by mail and will receive instructions on how and where to submit the $15 fee to obtain their permit.

Fish and Game biologists last winter counted 4,109 antelope in the area. While this was the third highest number since the herd survey began 21 years ago, it was still down from the previous two years. Because of this and a lower buck-to-deer ratio, fewer permits were recommended for this year's hunt.

Quick Stong unit tops BU

As Dunbar Stong head coach Spud Hodge stressed, "It was a team effort and his under-16 year old soccer team proved it by trouncing the host Pleasanton Ballistic United club, 4-1, last night at Pleasanton's Aquatic Park.

The Stongs were originally scheduled to face Dublin United yesterday, but the Dublin squad could not produce a full team and Pleasanton stepped in.

Yesterday's win moves the Stongs, British Columbia's top under-16 team, into a 1-0-1 record on their Northern California tour. On Sunday, Dunbar battled to a 1-1 tie with the District Three All-Stars.

Steve Nesin, who was voted British Columbia's best youth soccer player for the second consecutive year, scored three goals to lead Dunbar to its easy win.

Nesin literally tore a hole in the United defense and scored unassisted for the game's first tally 22 minutes into the first half.

United, which kept the action hot and heavy in front of the Dunbar goal, finally scored eight minutes later.

A pushing violation was called on a Stong defender and United was awarded with an indirect penalty kick John Castillo banged what appeared to be a goal in the upper left-hand corner of the Stong net, but another pushing violation was whistled.

With the first goal disallowed Castillo calmly pushed the ball past Dunbar goalie Rob Irving to knot the score at 1-1.

With only two minutes remaining in the first half, Dunbar went ahead, 2-1, when Carl Shearer lofted a pass to Nesin, who drilled it into the low left-hand corner of the Ballistic net.

Dunbar came out flying at the outset of the second half and took only three minutes to score. Rob McGinley launched a pass to Ty Docherty, who capitalized on the wide open net.

Docherty and Nesin teamed up for the Stongs final goal, with Nesin taking the goal-scoring honors.

"It was the teamwork that really did it for us tonight," remarked Hodge, "we played better tonight than we did on Sunday because we worked better as a team."

Hodge singled out right fullback Steve Smith, halfback Jim Armstrong as well as the incomparable Nesin.

United head coach Ian Lang couldn't have been prouder of his team despite the loss.

"We didn't have any problems tonight, it was just that their forwards were too quick for our fullbacks, he said. "Besides, they have been together for six years and this is really only our first." Lang praised Castillo, as well as fullback Leonard Baine and halfback Ricky Stewart.

The key to the Stongs victory, in addition to their quickness, was their overall team discipline and ability to keep verbal contact with one another. On many occasions, it was the shouting of Irving to his defenders that saved apparent goals. —Steve Mona

Wolfe makes 1st cut despite big gamble

PEBBLE BEACH - Despite an unwarranted indiscretion at the ocean washed 16th hole, Livermore's Vic Wolfe fired a four-over par 76 on the Cypress Point Golf Course yesterday and survived the first cut in the California State Amateur Championship.

Wolfe's two-day total of 159, 15-over par, was good enough by three shots to reach the third round this morning at Pebble Beach. Another cut will be made following today's round, with the low 32 scores advancing to the match play championship.

"I have to come out firing tomorrow," said a pleased Wolfe after his fine round in high winds yesterday. "If I can shoot a 74, I'll have a good chance to make the match play."

Vic, who staggered to an 83 Monday at Pebble Beach, notched two birdies yesterday, and in fact, could have finished three shots better than he did.

Greed took over at the long par-three 16th, however, and cost him two strokes.

Wolfe attempted to reach the 235-yard hole with a driver, but pulled his tee-shot left and into the ocean. He wound up with a double-bogey five on the hole. It could have been a four had not Wolfe missed a three-foot putt.

"I should have just used a five or six iron on that hole and played for bogey," Wolfe said looking back. "But I had to pull out the driver and go for the green."

Pleasanton's Jack Stevenson had a similar lament after crumpling with a 10 on the 15th hole at Pebble Beach yesterday. Stevenson, who was only two-over par up to that point, finished with an 88, 16-over par, and a two-day total of 180. He missed the cut by 18 shots.

Stevenson will play a qualifying round at Spyglass Hill today for a berth in the consolation match play flight which begins Thursday.

Jack, an Amador Valley High School senior, shot an opening day 92, but regrouped for most of yesterday's round. On the 406-yard par-four 15th, however, he sprayed three tee shots out of bounds.

"That hole always gives me a problem," Stevenson said. "I should have used a three wood off the tee and played it safe. Finishing holes in a tournament are always a killer for me. I was having a great time until then, and suddenly it all went down hill."

Wolfe begins today's play 11 shots behind the leader, Dr. Jack Lucetti, in at four-over par 148. Defending State Amateur champion Curtis Worley is at 150. Among those at 151 is former San Francisco 49er quarterback, John Brodie.

Vic finished second this past season in the California Junior College championships.

The former Livermore High School golfer fought back into contention at Cypress Point yesterday with birdies on the par-five fifth hole, 490-yards, and on the 270-yard par-four ninth.

After his disaster at 16, Wolfe also suffered a bogey at 18.

"I figured if I shot 157 or 158 for two days I'd make the cut," Wolfe said. "But there were guys out there today telling me that 162 would make it, so I was pretty sure."

"I played well the other day," he said, referring back to his 83 at Pebble. "I was only two-over after eight holes, but then the marshalls started speeding us up, and I was rushing everything. The hole kept evading my ball yesterday, but today, I was hitting it right in the cup. The greens are hard and quick because of the wind, and if you don't hit dead center, the ball spins out on you."

Wolfe fired nines of 36-40 yesterday.

Poland ready for Guadalajara

Poland's National soccer team, reigning Olympic champion and third in the 1974 World Cup, will come at full strength Friday for its international match in Kezar Stadium with Universidad de Guadalajara at 8 p.m.

Thirteen members of the Polish squad which outscored all others in the World Cup competition, and permitted the fewest goals, will make the trip to San Francisco.

The list includes Kazimierz Deyne, perhaps the game's greatest player, plus Gregory Lato and Andrej Szarmach, the two top scorers in last year's World Cup.

Jan Tomaszewski, the giant goalkeeper who checked opponents to four goals in seven World Cup contests, will start in the nets.

The team arrives Wednesday.

WHITE PLAINS, New York — The Orinda Track Club's female mile relay team failed to reach the finals of the National AAU Junior Championships, the first of two meets it will enter this week, after a third place finish in its heat here yesterday.

The quartet, which has also ambitiously entered the Senior competition to be held this weekend, ran a 3:55.5. Only first place finishers advanced to the finals, regardless of comparative times and Orinda coach Don Bailes said, "a lot of 3:50's went to the finals."

San Ramon's Michelle Fabian, of California High School, ran an opening leg of "about 59" according to Bailes. AAU officials had not made exact times available.

Today's muggy, 90 degree, weather is expected to last through the weekend, but Bailes does see some hope for his team.

"It gets tougher up there," he said in reference to the women's meet, "but the girls will probably be more used to the weather and be over any jet lag by then."

In individual events, Pleasant Hill's Kathy Costello, also a member of the relay squad, made the finals yesterday with a 2:09.9 in the 800 meters on the Tartan track surface.

Adult school signups still accepted

LIVERMORE - Adult summer school registration is still being accepted for some classes, principal Jim McCarty announced.

Classes began Monday, June 23, with most being offered Monday and Wednesday evenings, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Livermore High.

The program closes Aug. 1. Openings still exist in English for Foreign Speaking, business machines, typing review, expressive writing, driver training, parent participation pre-school, sailing, upholstery, welding, body conditioning, self-defense for women, math (all levels), chorus, jewelry making and leather design.

A new attraction is a daytime class in outdoor watercolor and acrylic painting where the group will go afield to learn techniques under the instruction of Margo Kirke-woog, Marilyn Calhoun and Muriel Doggett. The class meets Tuesday mornings, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30. An indoor class taught by the same team will be offered Tuesday nights.

Registration is being accepted now at the Adult Education Office, 3044 East Ave., 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily. Tuition is $2 per person. Further information is available from the adult school office at 447-6671.

Cubs seek family aid

LIVERMORE - Cub Scout Pack 923 has begun a fund to assist the Conoway family with the medical expenses for eight-year-old Jon Conoway, now listed in stable condition at Stanford Medical Center.

Jon was discovered nearly drowned in the May Nissen Park pool June 9 and was taken to Valley Memorial Hospital. He later was transferred to Stanford.

Cubmaster Richard York hopes to raise funds to assist the Conoway family in meeting their nearly $1,000-a-day expenses.

Contributions can be made to the Jon Conoway Fund, c/o the Bank of America, P.O. Box 1110, Livermore, 94550.

Other scout units who wish to help on projects can contact York at 443-8014, evenings.

California Custom Carpets

After six-and-one-half years of carpet sales and installation in the Valley's housing tracts, owners Ron and Sandy Kolacek (left) have opened the doors of California Custom Carpets to retail sales. Dublin Chamber of Commerce Director Kathy Comerford and Maid of Dublin Louise Hodges presented the Blarney Stone of Dublin Businesses to the couple at last week's grand opening. The Kolaceks buy carpeting in quantities large enough to supply builders and pass the savings on to their customers, according to Ron. All prices include installation and padding, partner Sandy said. Their 6815 Dublin Blvd. showroom is open Monday through Friday.

Granada pair on journey to Spain

LIVERMORE - Two Granada High students will be in a small group going to Spain this summer with a teacher.

The students are Rene Coronado and Mike Cain. They will be accompanied by Donna Banks, a former Granada student now living in Rockland, as well as two out-of-town students.

Granada High Spanish teacher Celeste Layne will be taking the group on an American Leadership Study Group tour. In 25 days, the group will go to London as well as to the Spanish cities of Madrid, Toledo, Cordoba, Seville, Malaga, Valencia, Granada, Barcelona, and Tarragona. They will hear lectures on the art, architecture and history of Spain and will practice speaking Spanish as much as possible.

The students have spent the past year doing odd jobs to earn money for their adventure. They leave Monday, June 30.

"Glove money" simply put means a bribe. Years ago it was the custom in British law for the client to present a pair of gloves to the attorney who agreed to handle his case.

Planners vote to retain Santos Ranch road density

HAYWARD - The Alameda County Planning Commission unanimously recommended Monday that one-acre residential zoning be retained on nearly 60 acres in the vicinity of Santos Ranch Road.

The commission had initiated rezoning to a lower density but voted to recommend to the board of supervisors that the one-acre minimum building sites be retained because the property owners had relied on that zoning.

One of the parcels, 42 acres, is owned by Jim Gibbs and a second 17-acre piece is owned jointly by William Ostle and O.C. Olesen.

Those property owners were a part of the now-defunct Pleasanton Township County Water District and have paid assessments based on the ultimate residential development of their land. The board of supervisors will consider the planning commission's recommendations in several weeks
